We are a diverse group with a common idea shared by all pilots – a love of flight. We are AOPA pilots who take to the skies for many reasons and motivations. We are united in protecting the privilege of general aviation and growing the pilot community.

We welcome your questions, comments, and discussions. In order to keep our communities and conversations focused, we've established the following guidelines:

Anything posted to our social networks may be seen and read by everyone. Our social media is public so that anyone can participate; we cannot be responsible for views expressed other than our own. We encourage you to use caution when sharing personal information on social media networks. A post/comment share, reaction, response, or follow does not indicate an endorsement of the person(s), company/companies, or content of the post.

Your comments should be related to the topics posted on our social networks. We reserve the right to delete off-topic comments, rude or inappropriate comments, discriminatory or defamatory comments, or any comment we deem to be in poor taste or misinformed. We also reserve the right to block or ban users as appropriate, potentially without warning.

With a small social media team, AOPA makes our best attempt to moderate comments that are derogatory, defamatory, or hateful in nature (see below). If it becomes clear that the number of negative or incendiary comments will continue and overwhelm our resources, AOPA reserves the right to turn off commenting on that post.

Our diversity makes us stronger, and we welcome questions, comments, discussions, constructive feedback, and differing opinions. We do not tolerate harassment, abuse, or threats to others and reserve the right to remove any posts or comments that don't adhere to our guidelines and to block anyone who violates them repeatedly. Specifically, we do not tolerate posts that are:

Abusive, harassing, stalking, threatening or attacking others
Defamatory, offensive, obscene, vulgar or depicting violence
Hateful or derogatory in language targeting race/ethnicity, age, color, creed, religion, gender, sexual preference or orientation, nationality, or political beliefs
Sexually explicit or pornographic
Fraudulent, deceptive, libelous, misleading, or unlawful
References to criminal or illegal activity
Violations of any intellectual property rights
Spamming in nature
Viruses or programs that could damage the operation of other people's computers
Commercial solicitations or solicitation of donations

Removal of posts and user bans
We reserve the right to remove any comments or content that doesn't adhere to these guidelines or with any other applicable Terms and Conditions, rules, or laws. We may also block users who violate the rules or otherwise abuse our online communities.
