Rochester Aviation would like to announce the First Annual 2012 Rochester Aviation Air Race. We have selected five of our favorite local aviation destinations. Each destination was selected for its hospitality to General Aviation and all offer local restaurants and attractions. Starting August 1st we will be revealing the five destinations and providing Air Race T-Shirts to all participants. Participants will have until September 1st at 6:00PM to submit photographic evidence of their arrival at each destination (wearing the air race T-shirt in front of a sign or logo). We will have a progress map and photo gallery posted in the Rochester Aviation reception area of the terminal building to be updated upon receipt of participant's photos. The first participant to arrive at all five destinations and provide photographic proof will receive the Grand Prize Flightbag loaded with aviation goodies. Each participant after who completes all five destinations will receive a raffle ticket for one of several prizes to be raffled of during the September Rochester Aviation Monthly BBQ. All participants will keep their Air Race T-shirts at the end of the event. Application for participation in the 2012 Air Race will cost $25 and all proceeds will benefit a Rochester Aviation Scholarship to be awarded in October 2012. Anybody is welcome to apply for the Rochester Aviation Scholarship, please pick up an application form at Rochester Aviation. Happy flying!
