Atlanta Sectional and TAC effective dates modified

Due to major changes to the Charlotte Class B Airspace, the effective dates for the Atlanta Sectional Chart and the Atlanta Terminal Area Chart are being changed. The next editions of these charts (86th and 83rd respectively) will be effective January 13, 2011 to August 25, 2011. This change is necessary in order to accommodate the effective date of the revised Charlotte Class B airspace. Please discontinue the use of the current 85th Edition Atlanta Sectional Chart and 82nd Edition Atlanta Terminal Area Chart effective January 13, 2011.
